Thanks to all for joining us for our SIXTH biennial Bipartisan Senate Chiefs of Staff Retreat!

Below is the detailed breakdown of the expenses for the retreat. For purposes of your post-travel ethics reporting, you should total up the costs you incurred and list them on the RE-2 form. For example, if you skipped a breakfast or didn't take the train/bus, etc., you do not need to include those costs. All dollar figures are "Actual Amount." You also do not include spouse expenses on the RE-2 since they were not paid by Pew. Your paperwork is due by October 17 to 232 Hart Building.

For spouse reimbursement to Pew, please add up the costs actually incurred (except for the hotel room). Checks can be made out to The Pew Charitable Trusts and sent to my attention at The Pew Charitable Trusts, 901 E Street, NW, Washington, DC, 20004. Give me a shout if you have any questions!

United States Senate

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

August 24, 2017

Helen Tolar
Office of Senator John Boozman
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Ms. Tolar:

This responds to your recent correspondence concerning an invitation you and your spouse received to travel to the Bipartisan Senate Chiefs of Staff Conference, in Richmond, Virginia on September 15-17, 2017, sponsored by The Pew Charitable Trusts (Pew). Pew certified to the Select Committee on Ethics (the Committee) that it will pay the *necessary expenses*¹ related to the travel and that it is neither a lobbyist, nor lobbying firm, nor agent of a foreign principal, and it is not otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government. However, Pew has certified that it is an organization designated under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code² that retains or employs a registered lobbyist and that no registered lobbyist will accompany you at any point throughout your trip.³

Based on information and materials available to the Committee, and assuming the actual travel and travel-related expenses conform to the information and materials you provided, it appears that the proposed payment or reimbursement of necessary expenses for this trip may be accepted under relevant Senate Rules and the Committee's Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel, so long as at the time of the payment or reimbursement, Pew is neither a registered lobbyist nor lobbying firm under the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, nor an agent of a foreign principal under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (and is not otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government), and provided the travel and all required documents are disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate in accordance with the provisions of Senate Rules 34 and 35. Necessary expenses may include travel expenses for the spouse of a Senate employee if the supervising Member determines that the attendance of the spouse is appropriate to assist in the representation of the Senate.⁴

¹ The term “necessary expenses” has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics’ Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 8.

² 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

³ The term “any point throughout your trip” has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics’ Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 2.

⁴ Though Pew has extended an invitation to your spouse, Pew will not assume any costs associated with your spouse's participation in the conference.

00000007250

Under Senate Rule 35, Senate staff must receive advance authorization signed by the Member or officer under whose direct supervision the individual works in order to accept payment or reimbursement for necessary expenses related to fact-finding travel. Further, such authorization and expenses must be disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate by filing the completed Employee Pre-Travel Authorization and the Employee Post-Travel Disclosure of Travel Expenses (Form RE-1 and Form RE-2), along with a copy of the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, and all relevant attachments (e.g., the private sponsor's invitation and itinerary) within 30 days of the conclusion of Privately-Sponsored Travel.

Finally, Senate Rule 34 requires a reporting individual⁵ on his or her Financial Disclosure Report, to make an annual disclosure of the receipt of payments or reimbursements under Senate Rule 35 from a private sponsor for officially-related travel expenses where, in the aggregate, travel expenses exceed $390 from that sponsor during a calendar year. However, if a Member, officer, or employee properly reports the receipt of necessary expenses for such travel to the Secretary of the Senate within 30 days of the travel, as discussed above, the travel expenses need not be disclosed a second time on their Financial Disclosure Report.

I hope you find this information helpful. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.

Sincerely,

Deborah Sue Mayer
Chief Counsel and Staff Director

Enclosure: Travel Checklist

⁵ A reporting individual is someone whose salary equals or exceeds 120% of the basic rate of pay for GS-15 ($124,406 for CY 2017) or is a political fund designee and is required to file Financial Disclosure Reports.
